

ANTONELLA CLARO
Creative Director

Antonella serves as the central point of contact for all marketing needs. She is responsible for overseeing the day-to-day operations and communication of the department. She facilitates collaboration between the marketing team and brokers to develop strategies; plan and coordinate efforts, as well as build brand awareness for internal divisions. Antonella creates custom design collaterals for both print and electronic media distribution. She leads the creative art direction for the department.

CONNOR SURRO
Graphic Designer

Connor is involved with the design and production of collaterals such as offering memorandum, broker opinion of value, brochures, newsletters, listing presentations; while ensuring brand guidelines consistency. He leads the social media initiative and updates of the company's websites (both internal and external). Connor works closely with brokers on how best to incorporate his designs within client presentations or sales/leasing materials.

CHRIS TAVAREZ-SATTERFIELD
Graphic Designer

Chris brings extensive marketing experience and creativity to our team, specializing in avant-garde visuals and crafting various captivating marketing collateral in fast-paced environments. Chris's expertise extends beyond traditional print media to encompass digital platforms. His portfolio speaks volumes about his dedication to innovative design, typography, customized print, digital solutions and email call-to-action marketing messages tailored for elite clientele.

MAPPING & DEMOGRAPHICS

AZALEA MILLET
GIS Specialist

Azalea is responsible for creating custom site maps, aerial images and demographic studies to be included in offering memorandum, broker opinion of value, brochures, newsletters, listing presentations and other marketing material. She provides aerial mapping support for the local offices and works with the marketing team to provide custom, graphically enhanced maps consistent with company standards. Azalea also performs requests for demographic reports and information.

RESEARCH & COMMUNICATIONS

J.C. CASILLAS
Managing Director, Research & Public Relations

J.C. actively analyzes, presents, and communicates commercial real estate market information. As the writer of our quarterly Market Outlook reports, he is recognized as the 'go-to person' for commercial real estate market insights. J.C. collaborates extensively with brokers on various business development projects and client presentations. Additionally, he is the primary point of contact for media communications and public relations at NAI Capital Commercial.